

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

The National Foundation has announced two new Calls for Proposals: Democracy and Human Rights and Supporting Innovative Initiatives for Children and Youth in Local Communities

(Zagreb, 21 January 2015) The National Foundation for Civil Society Development, acting as the Fund Operator for the implementation of the EEA and Norway NGO Programme in Croatia, has launched today two new Calls for Proposals: Democracy and Human Rights and Supporting Innovative Initiatives for Children and Youth in Local Communities.

Eligible applicants for the Call Democracy and Human Rights are associations and foundations (that are not founded by public institutions), registered in the Republic of Croatia. Under this Call, application can be submitted in two categories: individual applications and applications in partnership of at least 3 organisations. The range of grants for individual applications is from HRK 150,000.00 (20.000,00 €) to HRK 262,500.00 (35.000,00 €) and for applications in partnership of at least 3 organisations from HRK 262,500.00 (35.000,00 €) to HRK 600,000.00 (80.000,00 €). Project implementation shall last from 12 months up to a maximum of 18 months.

Eligible applicants for the Call Supporting Innovative Initiatives for Children and Youth in Local Communities are associations and foundations (that are not founded by public institutions), registered in the Republic of Croatia. The range of grants is from HRK 75,000.00 (10.000,00 €) to HRK 150,000.00 (20.000,00 €). Projects implementation shall last from 6 months up to a maximum of 12 months.

Deadline for the submission of applications: 20th of March 2015.

Full documentation for the Applicants is available at <http://eea-ngo-croatia.hr>